

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The arts uplift the human spirit, improve the quality of life, and contribute to social change for the betterment of our communities; and,

WHEREAS, Public and private partnerships in the arts have flourished over the past two decades through the support and encouragement of the National Endowment for the Arts, the South Dakota Arts Council and community arts councils; and,

WHEREAS, For twenty years, the Watertown Area Arts Council has significantly contributed to the arts in the region and in the state, providing cultural experiences for the area's citizens and serving as a catalyst for a strong and enduring commitment from those creating and supporting the arts:

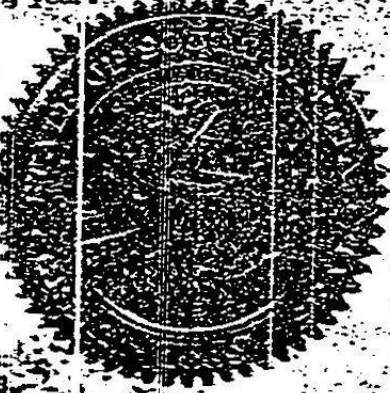

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 5, 1987, as in South Dakota in recognition of their twentieth anniversary, and urge all citizens of the Watertown community to celebrate the arts throughout the coming year.

WATERTOWN AREA ARTS COUNCIL DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-seventh Day of October, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

DAVID W. HARRISON, SECRETARY OF STATE
